K-Mart

Chamber stands firm, no industrial bonds

Maybe Antioch's new mayor, Ray Toft, has had second thoughts on the use of industrial revenue bonds to bring the $5 million K-Mart shopping complex to the north end of Antioch. But according to a letter that the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry has sent to the membership, the Chamber has not changed its mind.

The letter states that their stand against the bond use remains firm.

According to Chamber President Mark McKinney, "It's the principal of the thing. We firmly believe that a complex of this type, that will house the nation's second largest retailer, does not qualify for this type of subsidized funding."

The Chamber's stand remains that industrial bonds should be used only to encourage additional industry to come to the area.

Toft says that, as he investigates other areas, he finds that many of them have used and are using these bonds, not only to bring in revenue producing retailers but also to entice professional offices.

McKinney counters, "Many Chambers are suing municipalities that do this, saying that the use of bonds in this way is illegal."

Toft claims that the additional traffic flow should bring more business to the existing merchants, while also stating that a revamping of the downtown shopping area is in order.

He has already started his appeasement of the Main and Lake St. merchants with the purchase of a half-acre of land for off-street parking behind the east side of Main St..

Toft seems to have a "if you can't lick 'em join 'em attitude," because he feels that the complex will definitely locate in the immediate area and if it does so, outside the village, the competition and destruction of the downtown area can still take place, with the village reaping no benefit at all.

Although McKinney and the Chamber are

To date the Antioch Fire Dept. training program has certified 28 members at the firefighters second level and six members at the firefighters third level.

The fire department has an on-going training program in which all new members got through a 200 hour training course to be state certified.

The probationary period was set to provide a maximum of two years to obtain certification.

Having passed their certification, these five men will be appointed by the village board as full members of the Antioch Fire Dept.

Chamber opposes

calling for the Antioch Village Board to make efforts in the revitalization of the downtown retail district, enumerating additional parking, beautification and improved traffic flow, it doesn't look like even all these would placate the Chamber if the industrial revenue bonds are used.

In the letter, the Chamber calls the use of Industrial Bonds a subsidization. Some people have been heard to say, "they will be using our money."

Actually no money changes hands, K-Mart will just be built and mortgaged at a lower rate of interest, usually only available to a village.

A public informational meeting will be held on this matter, at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, May 26, at the village hall.

Carole reports Men give viewpoints on sexual harassment

by CAROLE RISK

The federal government has been investigating whether or not there is a need for additional legislation to protect women who work from sexual harassment.

There has been a great deal of controversy over the subject, as to whether or not the problem exists and whether or not it is a matter that requires government intervention.

Many women have expressed their opinions on the matter, both publicly and privately; but so far there hasn't been much heard from men and what they think?

Here are the thoughts of nine men who live or work in the Antioch area, concerning the questions: is this a problem for women who work and should women be protected with additional regulations?

JOE STERBENZ, Antioch Bowl, "I agree that sexual harassment exists. Look at the film industry. It's been there since day one, and I agree that laws should be passed to prevent it."

WAYNE VIVIRITO, Kings Drugs, "I am sure that harassment does exist in certain fields, you don't see it in this type of business, though when I was in pharmacy school there was a certain amount of harassment directed towards women. But, I don't think that we need more laws, I think that more laws may make an employer hesitate before considering potential woman employees. I feel that we are over-regulated already."

DAVID HEATH, general contractor, "I think that there is harassment, but not just of women. To an extent all employees are harassed. As far as women are concerned, they should speak up for themselves and say they don't want to be bothered. As for additional laws, no, maybe the labor laws we have could be more clearly defined."

BILL SKUPIEN, tool and die maker, "I am sure that sexual harassment of women does happen, but I haven't seen it. I don't think that sex should play any part in any job. As far as laws are concerned, no, I think that women can turn men off with the proper technique."

DR. A. URBAN, DDS, "Yes I believe that there is sexual harassment of working woman, and that it is, a form of extortion, and because it is extortion there should be laws against it."

TOM MERKEL, vice president, manufacturing, "Sexual harassment does happen but it will not occur in companies where employers won't tolerate it, and there are many fine companies with mature-thinking management where this problem doesn't exist. But when I hear men say that they don't know how to treat women that are now employed, in what were once men's jobs, that is not true, how would these men treat their wives or sisters? As far as changing the law is concerned, I don't think that that is the answer. I think that it is a question of morals, a loosening of moral codes has occurred in the last 15 years. People should learn once again to have respect for each other."

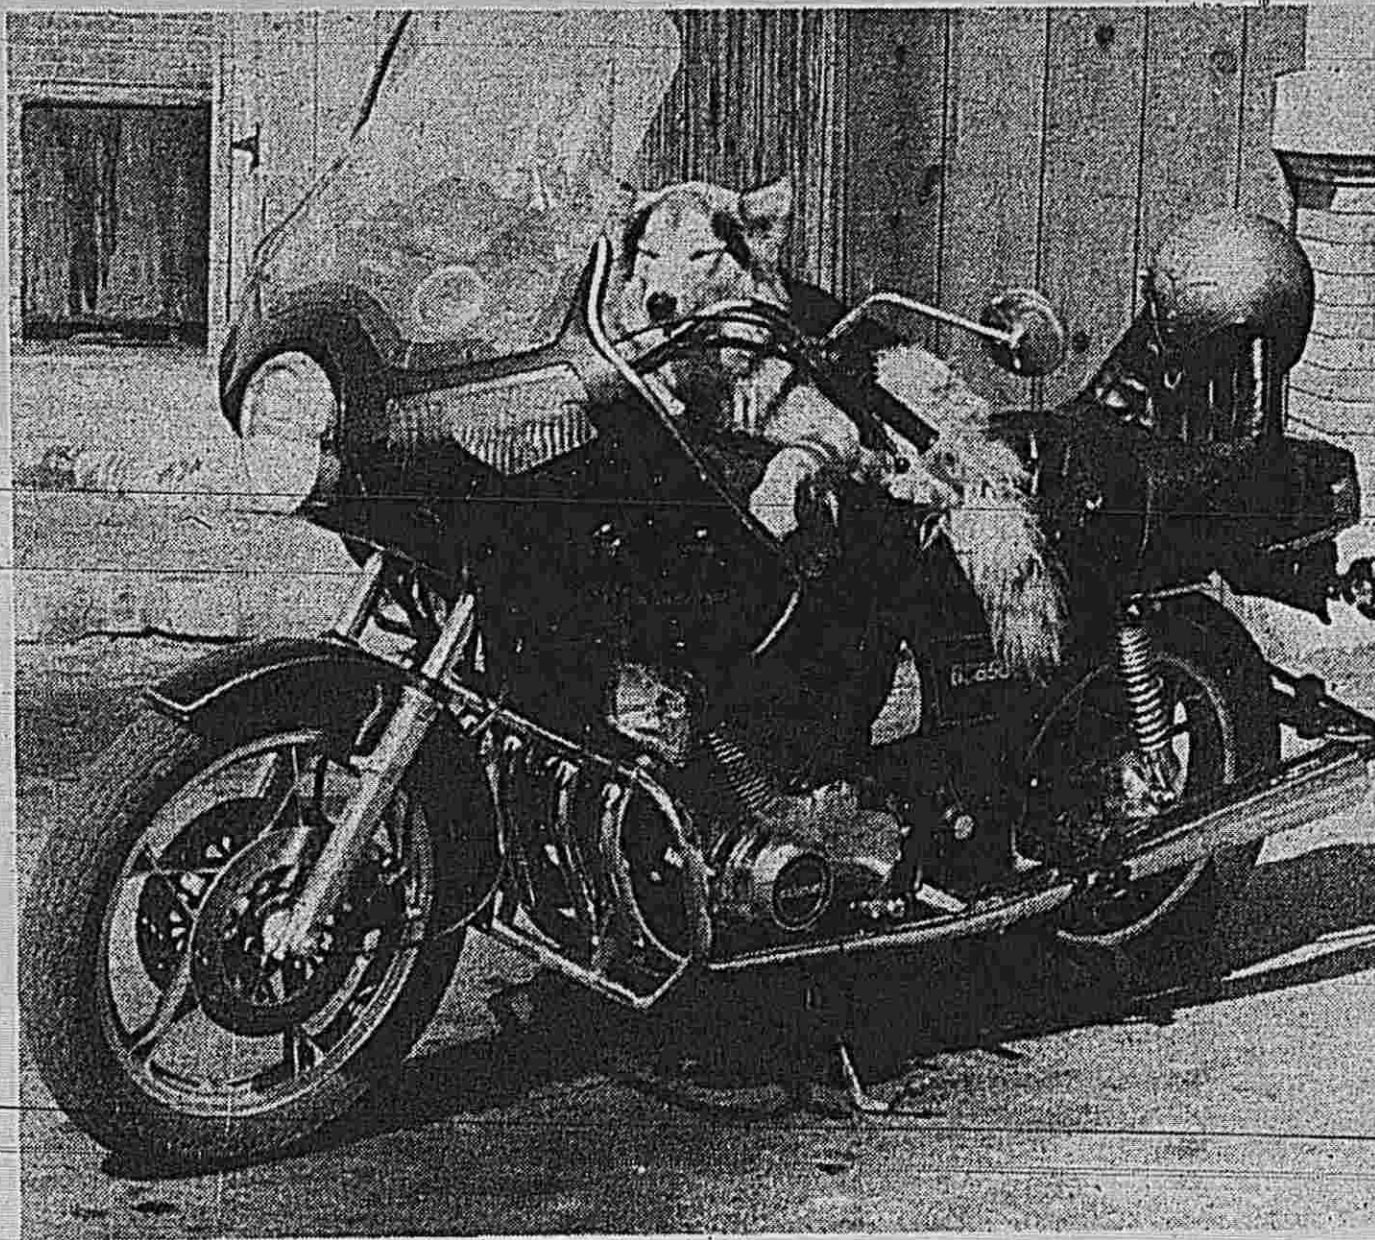

JIM COYLE, director of computer systems, "I haven't seen any sexual harassment of women myself, though I am sure it's there, but it has a lot to do with the way a woman conducts herself. I am not saying that every woman is looking for trouble, and I am sure that there are women who get unwanted attention, but there is no question that the way she handles herself is important. It wouldn't do any good to pass laws, how could something like this be proved?"

DR. V. OLSON, senior pastor, Antioch Evangelical Free Church, "After 27 years in the ministry and after discussions with many people, yes it happens. But there have been cases where women, after thinking it over have said, that they precipitated the harassment. Women who appeal to the opposite sex can send out signals and appear inviting. Some women seem to be more susceptible to this, especially women without partners. There are men who consider these woman easy prey, and there are attractive and virtuous women who are competing with men for a job who will be harassed, because by sexual harassment, men can reduce their competition to a piece of meat. This is a way of putting her down and reducing the threat of competition. But men too have to be careful, particularly those men in professions that bring them into contact a great deal with women alone. These men must take precautions to guard themselves, just as women have to."

RON RISK, union official, "Yes there is sexual harassment of female workers, but it is much less predominant in unionized work sites, primarily because male workers and

The Time Machine

50 YEARS AGO: MAY 28, 1931

Forty seniors, the largest class in the history of Antioch High School, will graduate Monday evening. Marie Shede and Ward Edwards are valedictorians.

This week witnesses the opening for the season of the big pavilions of the lake region. The Channel Lake pavilion, under the management of Homer Winch, last night presented Tweet Hogan and his Drake hotel orchestra. There will be dancing Saturday and Sunday nights until June 27, when the pavilion will be open nightly, except Monday, until Labor day. Bob Peary and his Chicago Champions is the splendid band to be heard at Mickey Rafferty's Antioch Palace during the summer. They opened the season there for Saturday and midweek dances some time ago.

The Antioch Country Fair Association received another check from the state treasurer for $41.19 to defray deficit occurring in all county fairs last year. With one successful fair to their credit, leaders in organizing plans for the second annual country fair feel that there should be no deficit this year.

No trace of three armed unmasked bandits who held up the Catalina Island resort north of the state line Monday noon, taking $150, has been found. In an attempt to capture the men by tracing the license number on their DeSoto, it was discovered that the license had been issued for a Packard, and evidently had been stolen.

The ball lot west of town will be the scene of many a battle between the businessmen on the west side of the street and those on the east this summer. The two teams were organized by Otto Klass and William Morley.

Lack of teeth also has advantages. That fact was what came to the defense of William J. Obee when Justice Harry Hoyt decided after viewing Obee's almost toothless mouth, that the county board chairman could not have bitten R. H. Stripe.

20 YEARS AGO: MAY 24, 1951

Sam Turner and a friend, Lulu Carpenter, were arrested by authorities over the weekend and will be returned to Lake County to answer the charge of taking an estimated $1,100 from Louis Pregoner's Grass Lake Resort.

Sixty-two seniors will be graduated from the Antioch Township High School Thursday evening.

Two new business house will be among the seven stores and post office which will occupy the new Moulis building on Lake St., by July 1. All rooms are under lease and will be occupied from east to west as follows: U.S. Post Office; Charles Cermak, real estate and insurance; Merry-Go-Round Bakery; Illinois Bell Telephone office; Art's Paint Store; Dr. Melvin L. Goldy; and Western Tire and Auto Co.

10 YEARS AGO: MAY 27, 1971

Eve January and Chip Gross were chosen the outstanding girl and boy of the 1971 Antioch High School senior class at the annual honors program. Commencement exercises will be Sunday, June 6 in the gymnasium.

Village Mayor Raymond Toft presented awards to firemen with more than 25 years of service on the Antioch Fire Department. They are Chief Charles Mapletorpe, J. Irving, Walsh, Mayor Toft, James Mapletorpe, Edward Frazier, Vern Barnstable, Laurel Van Patten, engineer, and Edgar Simonsen, honorary chief. The group represents 210 years of service with the volunteer department.

Get in the spirit

Antioch is a community of pride. We're proud of our schools and churches; we take pride in our teams and the successes of our youth. The accomplishments of the Antioch industrial community contributes to our self-esteem. In its 80 years of existence, the Antioch News has witnessed — and reported — countless examples of how our community has rallied to support a cause.

Such a cause is at hand and we think it is appropriate for an expression of community pride. Plagued by a general downtrend in the economy and pressed by competition from all sides, Antioch retail business needs a shot in the arm that a surge of hometown buying would provide. Antioch merchants could use the uplift of a vote of confidence that consumers could provide.

Over the years, Antioch has been blessed with one of the most complete retail facilities of any community in Lake or Kenosha counties. The community, as a whole, has grown and prospered because its stores and shops have enjoyed success. In our main shopping district and on the outskirts, there is variety and service that makes our neighbors envious. In fact, many of them come here to shop and do business because of Antioch's variety, convenience, values and friendliness.

Times change, though. There has been an erosion of retail sales. The sales tax figures bear that out. Frankly, there has been some misplaced allegiance.

That's why the Antioch News herewith is embarking on a campaign to rekindle the "shop at home" spirit. We will offer a $10 prize for the best letters submitted on the subject, "Why I Like to Shop in Antioch." We think it will be worthwhile sharing the feelings of Antioch residents who have a preference for doing business in their hometown. There are purely personal reasons and sound economic reasons for shopping at home. The small monetary inducement hopefully will draw out many of the reasons. Watch for the selected letters in coming issues of the Antioch News.

It is good to hear that there are others in our community who are aware of the need to promote shopping in Antioch. We understand the retail committee of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry will conduct a shop at home awareness project this summer. That is good.

We're confident Antioch merchants will make it worthwhile to do business with them. They will be running ads telling about their values and service. Our local merchants always are willing to support community endeavors. Now let's show them that the community cares. Show our merchants that Antioch has pride. Shop at home.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

I just got the yummiest new sheer floral print dress to wear to the Antioch Mental Health Cotillion this Saturday.

I just can't wait to play Loretta Young and float across the dance floor at The Abbey to the music of The Manhattan Skyline.

I hear that Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Armin, who are visiting from San Bernadino, Cal., made a point to visit their sister, Mrs. Jack Sizemore at Rainbow Lake Manor.

When Don Amundsen was asked what he was doing with all the spare time he used to use going to village board meetings, he answered that his wife always seemed to find plenty for him to do.

Mabel Lou Weber, on the other hand, is continuing to use her time in the same way, attending the village board meetings.

Congratulations to Mike and Christine Mattson who both took blue ribbons at the 23rd Annual Lake County Town and Country Amateur Art Show. Our two Picassos did ACHS proud.

Congrats also to Rosina Hellstern, who received a certificate of merit for doing outstanding academic work in administrative management, at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside.

It looks like it's another birthday for Shirley Gutowski. Don't worry Shirley, the 29th one is always the hardest.

Former Antioch residents, Wes and Louise Camp, are now residing outside of Houston, Texas, with their three offspring, also living in Texas, having already sprung into adulthood.

All three have made that fateful trip down the aisle. Pam is the mother of two, Doug, an almost daddy and David, oh well, he was never one to rush into things.

As usual, Antioch boys in the military are coming through with flying colors. Army Pvt. Tim Mahoney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mahoney, has just completed a parachute packing, maintenance and airdrop course, at the U.S. Army Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, Ga.

management personnel can be brought up on charges through grievance procedures. Unfortunately women who do not have access to this kind of protection can only tolerate the conditions or quit. There isn't any need for additional legislation, the legislation we have is sufficient.

The interviews were conducted among men who live in the Antioch area and all but one man is married. I questioned men who were mature and who I thought would have enough life experience that they would give serious thought to the issue.

After listening and reading both men and women's ideas, the thought that seems to come through the most is, that both sexes should have more respect for each other, not just because they have to work together, but because each person, male or female, is a human being.

Students teach hygiene

The health careers students of Antioch Community High School are participating in the THETA program to gain awareness into health teaching and dental hygienist fields.

The 28 pupils of Ms. Laura Wilkens class had received three weeks of dental hygiene from the Lake County Health Department.

Mrs. Marcia Radnor, registered dental hygienist, provided the dental hygiene to the school students.

Their instruction covered proper brushing and flossing techniques; structure and formation of the teeth; avoidance of oral health problems; proper snacking to reduce tendencies for cavities and career awareness.

After the instruction of dental hygiene, the health careers students were divided into 10 groups of two or three students each.

From April 20 thru May 7, each teaching group met with their fourth graders for a total of six times for one half hour session.

These student teachers are responsible for providing dental hygiene by following lesson plans. The lesson plans were given to each "Student Teacher" to follow by Radnor, R.D.H. Also, they are responsible for all the aspects that face teachers today.

The benefits are numerous for all involved.

A woman's place

When I think about it

Gloria lists rules to be neat by

by GLORIA DAVIS

When they gave the "Miss Tidy Homemaker of the Year" award, I guess I messed up the entry blank. Yet I feel I must admit, before the world and Mr. Clean, that "Litter Woman" isn't my favorite book and I don't get too upset if I miss a re-run or two of "Sanford and Son".

But I didn't earn the right to wear a t-shirt that says "Super Junker" all by myself. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank the people I live with, for aiding and abetting my rise to disorderly fame.

Since I seem to be losing the constant fight against daily living residue that goes on in our house, I have composed placards to be placed in the certain problem areas of my humble abode.

On a large pot holder, that I intend hanging above the kitchen sink, I have embroidered: after cooking, please soak all pots and pans for a period, not to exceed two weeks, or the end of the supply of cooking utensils, whichever comes first; when eating directly from the refrigerator, try not to leave more than one piece of silverware in each food item; if it isn't Christmas or St. Patrick's Day, any foodstuffs in the refrigerator that are trimmed with green mold should be transported directly to the garbage, unless you have the time and the equipment to mix up a batch of penicillin.

When the stack of dirty dishes comes within two feet of the ceiling, please transfer to the dishwasher in order that they may be properly water-spotted; when you find that you are wearing the kitchen floor tile for a shoe sole, it's time to "destickify" the floor by using the damp mop.

Typed on a long strip of toilet tissue, to be hung from the bathroom mirror, are my restroom rules; when in doubt, flush; three rings around the tub and you're out; one clean towel per day or, after your next shower, you'll blot with Bounty; gushy bars of soap, empty toothpaste tubes and dull razors are not collectors items, either swallow or throw away.

For my son's bedroom and my husband's half of our boudoire, I have painstakingly handlettered, on both ceilings, a few new laws that I have laid down: lumps belong in the sugar bowl, not in a well made bed; if you must litter the floor with dirty socks, please make sure they're in pairs; clothing belongs in closets, dresser drawers or in the clothes hamper, if you insist on using it as a carpet, please tack down; please put all bed-time snack china under the bed until you have time to take it to kitchen; when you can touch the ceiling while lying in bed, it may be time to clean under said bed; at the end of each month, all pocket empties left on dresser tops will be sold at auction; shoes belong on either your feet or the closet floor, their presence anywhere else will find them being dragged behind the next "Just Married" sign.

Of course, none of this applies to me and if you believe that, I have this bridge for sale.

Recipe of the week

Cumin's ethnic flavor is increasingly popular

Editors Note: The Antioch News welcomes recipes from local readers for the Recipe Of The Week feature. Send your recipes, including name, address and phone number, to The Antioch News, 952 Main St., Antioch, Ill. 60002, or drop them off at our office during business hours.

The consumption of cumin in the U.S. has risen 106 percent in the last decade. Much of this is due to the increasing interest in ethnic cooking, especially Mexican and Indian.

Cumin is an important ingredient in both chili powder and curry powder blends, and it is frequently used separately, as shown in these Latin American recipes.

We often associate hot peppers with Latin American foods, but cumin is almost as frequent a seasoning in recipes from Mexico and Guatemala to Argentina, Brazil and Peru.

Peruvian Chanco Adobado (Spicy Pork) has pork cubes marinated briefly in a mixture of cumin, salt, garlic powder, black pepper and white vinegar. Rice or sweet potatoes are traditional accompaniments.

Ajiaco Con Comino (Cumin Chicken Stew)

1 tablespoon instant minced onion
1/4 teaspoon instant minced garlic
Water
1 tablespoon vegetable oil
3 pounds chicken parts
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup thinly sliced carrots
1 can (16 oz.) whole tomatoes, crushed
1 1/2 teaspoons ground cumin
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper
1 package (10 oz.) frozen corn kernels, thawed
1 tablespoon all-purpose flour

Combine onion and garlic with an equal amount of water; set aside for 10 minutes to soften.

In a large skillet heat oil until hot. Add chicken; brown on all sides. Remove chicken from skillet. Discard all but two tablespoons of the fat in the skillet.

Heat fat in skillet; add green pepper, carrots and reserved onion and garlic; saute until vegetables are crisp-tender about three minutes.

Return chicken to skillet. Add tomatoes, cumin, salt and black pepper; bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer, covered, 35 minutes. Add corn; continue to simmer, covered, until chicken is tender, about 10 minutes.

Transfer chicken to serving bowl. Combine flour with 2 tablespoons water. Add to sauce in skillet. Cook and stir until thickened, about one minute. Spoon sauce over chicken. Serve over rice, if desired.

Chanco Adobado (Spicy Pork)

2 1/2 pounds boneless pork shoulder, cut into 1 1/2 inch cubes
1/4 cup white vinegar
1 tablespoon ground cumin
1 tablespoon ground annatto or turmeric
1 1/4 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper
1 tablespoon vegetable oil
1 cup orange juice
Water
1 tablespoon instant minced onion
1 tablespoon flour

Place pork in a tight-fitting bowl. Combine vinegar, cumin, annatto, salt, garlic powder and black pepper; pour over meat. Cover and refrigerate for one hour.

Strain pork, reserving marinade. Pat pork cubes dry with a paper towel.

In a large skillet heat oil until hot. Add pork; brown on all sides. Add orange juice, 1/2 cup water, onion and reserved marinade; bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer, covered, until pork is tender, about 30 minutes.

Combine flour with 2 tablespoons water. Blend into pork mixture. Cook and stir until thickened, 2 minutes. Serve over rice or with sweet potatoes, if desired. Yield: 4 portions.

PM&L's opening set for Saturday, May 30

If you have ever wondered what a vacation in Mexico is like, come see Tennessee Williams' "The Night of the Iguana," which opens this Saturday night, May 30, at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main Street in Antioch. Following performances of this engrossing play are to take place there on Friday and Saturday nights, June 5, 6, 12, and 13.

Shakespearean tryouts at PM&L

For the first time in its long history, Palette, Masque, and Lyre has chosen to mount a complete production of a play by William Shakespeare: "A Midsummer Night's Dream" is scheduled for performances on July 25 and 31; August 1, 2, 7, and 8.

Open auditions for this popular fantasy will be held at the PM&L Theater on Antioch's Main Street, on Monday and Tuesday, June 1 and 2 from 8 until 9:30 p.m.

Actors and dancers are needed to fill eight female roles and nine male roles. The age's of the characters range from youth to middle age.

Director Don Beveroth can be contacted by calling (414) 843-2739 if there are questions about the auditions or the show.

"A Midsummer Night's Dream" is pure theater, blending music and dance, comedy and farce, pageantry and action into a happy dream.

Actors and audiences have responded with joy to productions of this master work over the past 250 years; this summer PM&L will offer its actors and its audience the magic of the "Dream."

There will also be a matinee on Sunday afternoon, June 7. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. for the evening shows and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee.

If you are tied up on Friday and Saturday nights, the Sunday afternoon show is probably just the thing for you. You can join the many playgoers in a similar predicament who have found in the matinee a solution to the problem of not being able to go to the theater on Friday and Saturday nights.

"The Night of the Iguana" offers a questionably deluxe trip to the west coast of Mexico under the leadership of Blake Tours' most colorful tour guide, T.L. Shannon, a defrocked priest, played by Lou Jones of Round Lake.

The most memorable stop on the tour is at the less-than-posh Costa Verde Hotel at Puerto Barrio. There you will meet, among others, the recently widowed but easily consoled, hotel manager, Ann Marie Cina, McHenry, an ancient minor-league poet, Tom Hausman, Antioch, and his spinster granddaughter, Kris Ann Miller, Antioch.

Together they will help you to understand why Blake Tours is sometimes called upon to refund the tour money to its disappointed customers.

The PM&L production is directed by Barbara D. Miller, who is well-known as the director of the dinner theater shows at Andre's Steak House in Richmond.

"The Night of the Iguana" is one of the better-known of Tennessee Williams' plays and is regarded critically as the top of his form.

As the tour bus is therefore likely to be crowded, you should be sure to call 395-3055 for your reservations.

Also, remember to be at the PM&L box office by 8:15 p.m. on the night, or 2:15 p.m. on the afternoon, you plan to see this play, the last in PM&L's current Season 20.

"All progress is based upon a universal innate desire on the part of every organism to live beyond its income." Samuel Butler

Sequoits finish even

The Antioch Sequoits ended their baseball campaign with an even mark in the conference and even in overall competition.

The Sequoits were eliminated from IHSA regional action, losing to Zion-Benton, 9-4, on Thursday, May 21. The Sequoits had advanced by defeating Round Lake, 1-0, May 19 in Round Lake.

In that game, Roy Ravens (4-4) was the winning pitcher, yielding five strikeouts, two walks and four hits.

After leaving several runners on base early in the game, Antioch scored the eventual game-winner in the seventh inning. John Haling singled, then advanced to second on a bunt by Dan Johnson. But with John Jackson at bat, Haling was picked off second with the "hidden ball" trick.

Jackson singled, stole second and when the throw to second went into center field and the outfielder bobbled the ball, he scored on a close play at the plate.

At Zion, the Sequoits scored early when Steve Sheedlo tripled and scored on an error by the right fielder on a ball hit by Pete Weber.

In the sixth inning with one out, Mark Pomazak hit a grounder which was misplayed by the shortstop, with Pomazak ending up at second. After a walk to Dino Sisto, Jackson singled to score Pomazak. Haling reached on an error by the shortstop and Sisto scored.

Zion scored three in the bottom of the inning to tie the game. In the top of the seventh, Sheedlo singled, went to second on an error, stole third and scored on a passed ball. Zion scored its winning runs in the bottom of the sixth.

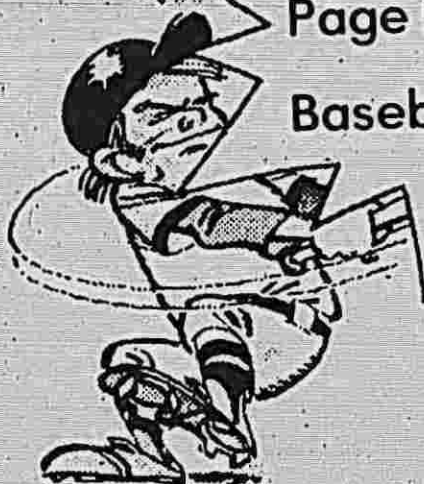

In conference action, Antioch defeated Warren 4-2, Monday, May 18, as pitcher John Haling ran his record to 4-3. The Sequoits scored three times in the second inning. Tim Koesser walked, Sisto singled and a walk to Haling loaded the bases. Johnson singled home Koesser, Dean Haviland walked to force Sisto home and Pomazak singled to score Haling. Pomazak then iced the cake with a solo homerun in the sixth.

The Sequoits then lost a conference tilt with Round Lake, 4-3. Round Lake scored all their runs in the third and Antioch scored theirs in the top of the seventh when Pomazak doubled and scored on a Jackson single; Sisto walked and Haling doubled to score two runners.

The season closed with a 3-0 white-wash of Lake Zurich as Carl Amundsen struck out eight, walked three and gave up four hits. In the top of the sixth, Jackson walked, Sheedlo doubled, and Weber singled, scoring Jackson. A balk scored Sheedlo and moved Weber to second. He stole third and scored on a wild pitch.

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR AGAIN.

Summer rates are in effect to encourage conservation. And, in case you've forgotten, that means four months of higher electric rates than you're used to paying the rest of the year.

What's more, the fuel adjustment charge will be higher, too, because the cost of fuel is getting higher.

Especially oil.

There's no denying it's going to hurt. All we can say is that if you really conserve, if you cut back during the summer when it costs the most to generate the extra electricity for air conditioning, it won't hurt nearly as much.

If enough of you give it a try, we won't have to burn as much expensive oil. The more of our electricity we can make with coal and uranium, the less it'll cost us all.

In the long run, holding down summertime use can hold down the number of new generating stations we'll need. And they're a big reason for rate increases in general.

So please, send for a free copy of our Waste Watchers Guide and use it for all it's worth. (Write: Department AV, Box 767, Chicago, IL 60690.) It'll show you 101 ways to keep electric bills under control.

Maybe, just maybe, the summer can be just plain fun again.

CORRECTIONS IN ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP ASSESSMENT ROLL BY THE LAKE COUNTY BOARD OF REVIEW FOR 1980.

Pursuant to Sec. 109 of the Revenue Act of 1939 as amended, the following is a list of the changes in the assessment of real property for the Year 1980, as authorized by the Lake County Board of Review for Antioch Township properties.

The changes listed below were further modified by an equalization factor of 1.7649 applied to all real estate, except farmland assessed under Sec. 20e of the Revenue Act of 1939, as amended.

These values are also subject to adjustment by the State of Illinois Department of Revenue equalization factor.

This publication does not reflect reductions for Homestead Exemptions, Homestead Improvement Exemptions and Veterans Exemptions.

Note that land values and improvement values appear separately and should be added together to arrive at a total assessed value.

NOTE: Top row of figures is Assessed Valuation. Second row is Board of Review Valuation.

Board slates social for May 28

At the meeting of the Antioch Community High School board, board member Frank Walsh, chairman of the budget committee, presented the report on educational equipment and supplies requests for 1981-82.

Approved were the purchase of equipment in the amount of $74,850 and supplies in the amount of $97,225. The latter represents a 6.55 percent increase.

The equipment represents no increase over last year with the exception of the cost of the equipment for the new computer course which is $19,000.

Board Member Bette Meyer, chairman of the recognition committee, reported the Staff Recognition Social is scheduled for Thursday, May 28 at 3:15 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Meyer also read a letter of resignation from the Cafeteria Manager Martha M. Sturm who is completing 24 years of service to the district.

In other personnel materials, a one year leave of absence to obtain additional schooling was granted Teresa Dempski, Spanish teacher.

Superintendent Warren Polley reported that the seven year cycle of on-site visitation, as part of North Central Association accreditation, will occur during the 1982-83 school year. Preparation for the visit will occur during the 1981-82 school year.

Polley also issued a special invitation to board of education members to attend the annual athletic banquet sponsored by the Antioch Lions Club.

The board approved Business Manager Kenneth Wierschem's recommendation to keep student registration fees the same as 1980-81.

The cost to returning students is $25 and to new students will be $30.

This would not have been possible except for the free textbooks we are receiving this summer from the Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE).

Principal Arthur Blecke presented for board approval the list of potential graduates. The list contained 395 names. The largest number of graduates prior to this year was 394 in 1977-78.

Enroll in drivers education

ANTIOCH COMMUNITY High School (ACHS) District residents between the ages of 15½ and 21 are eligible for the summer driver education program. The only cost to the student is $8 for a permit-license.

The complete integrated course is being offered starting Tuesday, June 16 and completing on Friday, July 31. Students at the high school and other district residents between the ages of 15½ and 21 may enroll by reporting to the Driver Education-Athletic Office in the gym foyer between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday before June 2. All those enrolling must complete the application data sheet and receive the rules and regulations in order that state materials may be processed.

Students planning on going to camp or vacation between June 16 and July 31 should not enroll. Since the program is state sponsored, specific hours and minimum requirements must be met. The driver education course at ACHS is an integrated program consisting of 33 hours of classroom, 12 hours of simulation, three and a half hours of on-the-street driving, and three and a half hours of observation. The behind-the-wheel instruction is given in late model cars furnished by two of our local dealers.
